To Whom It May Concern

It's my great pleasure to write this letter of recommendation in favor of Ms.Bethel Yohannes. I have known her for the last four years during her B.Sc. program study in Software Engineering. As a Lecturer of Software Engineering at Addis Ababa Science and Technology University, I taught her several courses and I quickly noticed that she was an especially motivated student, as she actively participated in discussions, and raised questions and issues that showed a devotion to learning. She was evaluated to explain the basis for grades, e.g., written exams, project work, teamwork, etc., in which she performed exceptionally well. As a general, Ms.Bethel Yohannes was a great student who immediately made a strong impression in classes. Her interest in the fields of computing, specifically in Software Engineering, I feel that what makes her an ideal student for higher education in this field of computing. She has shown motivation, intelligence, preserving nature, and analytical aptitude for graduate study. Her attendance and her presence of mind have been a key part of her study program that has helped her to contribute positively while working as a part of the team.

As a person she is so sociable, kind, and cooperative that makes her beloved by all fellow students of her batch. Given all this good conduct of her, it is obvious that working with this hardworking young women is easy and convenient. However, to mention as a weakness she is restless and a little bit fast in analyzing and understanding some concepts and also other persons.

I feel confident that Ms.Bethel Yohannes will continue to succeed in her further studies. She offers an engaging personality and a strongly motivated devotion to the study of Software Engineering. She intellect is such that it demands further study. She plans to pursue a M . S c over the next few years, after which time I expect her to
